2.2 Logic Model

Mission: To eliminate occupational diseases, injuries, and fatalities from the mining workplace through a focused program of research and prevention

Improved mining safety and health Program Outcomes Strategic evaluate intervention effectiveness Conduct surveillance and Intermediate Outcomes mine operators, and mining environment of attitude, and Changes in behavior of changes in knowledge, industry; physical miners, miners nedia releases; e.g., other NIOSH program areas; other U.S. agencies (MSHA); Government; Transfer activities technologies; market-ready training and regulations; Pilot and/or programs; standards/ education websites Research Partners, Stakeholders, and Intermediate Customers international agencies; NGOs; labor, trade, and professional associations; technology developers and manufacturers; fields of science and technology (researchers) Fransfer activitie External Factors Outputs databases; training icenses; patents programs; best and education demonstration developmental technologies; publications; workshops; materials; practices; Reports; epidemiological and behavioral studies; laboratory and field measurements and control studies and personal protective studies; exposure equipment studies R&D Activities and development Surveillance and assessments; development; effectiveness intervention studies; stakeholder inputs; risk analysis and effectiveness data; Human resources; funding; physical Surveillance and infrastructure Resources: intervention loss control Planning: customer/ Research Inputs